“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God's word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ Gralen and April,
We are so sorry to hear of Adam's passing. I know that you both find tremendous peace in knowing that he is with Jesus but also know that you have an overwhelming sense of loss. Praise God for the hope and assurance you have in seeing him again. Please know that you are being lifted in prayer.

“ Adam was such a special friend to me. I loved to be with him. He taught me strength and love. I would do any thing to see him laugh and smile. He would light up with the most perfect smile. He always loved listening to me talk and even sing. He was the only one who enjoyed me singing. Lol because i cant sing. He always kept me happy. No matter what mood i was in he would light me up. His mother and father was such great parents. I seen their love for him. I seen Adam light up for them as well. I think that I sure learned how to enjoy life. This family embraced life. They gave Adam the greatest part of them. Adam enjoyed his life and loved everyone he met. I miss him. I am so glad i got to meet him and his family. Blessed to know that Adam is home with the lord with his special wings. Fly high my buddy. I know you are smiling and laughing. Xoxo
