“ Psalms 90:10 tells us: “The span of our life is 70 years, Or 80 if one is especially strong.” May your hearts be filled with loving memories of “happy” times together, as you celebrate a life well-lived.

“ My favorites! Aunt Allie and Uncle Arnell. I always said her name first but she teased me mercilessly that I loved him best because I always hugged him first even if she was in front of him. I never noticed that it worked out that way but after I was older I never saw her that she didn't laugh and say something about it. They were sweet, kind, loving souls and I cherish the memories of their smiles and laughter. And the hugs. I know you will all miss them terribly. I'll be thinking of you. Sincerely, Dawn
