“ At the end of each life is a legacy of love and memories. Hold tight to those memories... Lean on each other for support. And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1 Peter 5:7 encourages; "Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you."

“ I will miss you Uncle Tony. Even though we did butt heads, I love you. One of my favorite memories: Mom and I were visiting and the dogs chased a racoon up a tree (during the day). You went out, shot it out of the tree, and proceeded to pose it in the attack position in "your" kitchen. Expecting to send Dean out to get something from said kitchen to scare him - HA! the trick back-fired - you got the dickens scared out of you when you went to retrieve something from said kitchen - forgetting about the posed racoon. :-) I will always love telling that story.

Rest in Peace Uncle. Give hugs and kisses to all that have departed and met you in the light. xxooxx

Hi, Fiorentino Family
My name is Arthur Morse
I lived in West Haverstraw NY from 1959-1963 . Tony and his wife Jacki were my parent's landlords. Did Tony Fiorentino ever live on 60 Blauvelt Ave in West Haverstraw NY? I had very pleasant memories of him. When he'd mow the lawn, he'd allow me hang onto the lawn mower handle and there was a lot of grass to mow. Seasons greetings to your family!

“ Rest in peace Dear Uncle Tony, I can't remember when you were not in my life as my Uncle. The memories I have of you are precious to me. I remember one time that Paul and I got in soooo much trouble for not keeping an eye on Dean. He shot the little TV that was on the dresser in their room with a plastic and rubber arrow. It stuck to the TV and when Dean tried to remove it, he pulled the whole TV off with him.....boy, do I remember how much trouble we got in because we did not stop him. We were not that much older ourselves lol You will be missed but the memories will live on forever !!!! Tell Daddy I said hello and y'all save a seat for me

“ For as long as I've known Tony my brother in law, he has always acknowledged God in his life. He always recognized that God was there and He had respect for Him. I've appreciated that about Tony.
