“ She was the best grandma anyone could've ask for. Sometimes she was more of a mother to me than a grandmother. I will always miss the way she said my name when I was in trouble. They way she use to wash my hair on the counter in the kitchen, and would comb out my tangles with the smallest toothed comb they make. Holidays were always a big deal. Her cooking, oh man, her cooking. I've been dreading this day for a long time. I'm so happy she's no longer in any pain. I love u Nanny Bob. U will never be forgotten. I'd give anything for u to have meet my boys.
