“ *To many people she was Belva Jean but to me she was Ba-Jean, because that was the best I could do at 2 years old. Miss you, sis, but know the reunion Sunday must have been something special, what with all the Anderson preachers and deacons and faithful wives greeting you. I am a little jealous you beat me there, but you did get an eleven year head start. Clyde, sorry the weather made it impossible for us to be there, but you and the family know you are and will always be in our prayers. Tell the family hell-o for us.

“ Clyde & Belva Jones are some of my folks longest & dearest friends and we pray for those who remain as they grieve, yet we rejoice with them for Miss Belva finally seeing the face of her Saviour - even though they met many years ago.

“ So very sorry for your loss. Susan and my daughter, Amy were in some of the same grades at Belair Elementary School. Belva and I crossed paths many times at school for class parties and the P.T.A. I thoroughly enjoyed visiting and working with Belva on these projects. May God continue to bless and hold your family in the palm of His hand and give you comfort and peace in the days to come.

“ Ed called last night and let us know of Belva's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with y'all. While we are all scattered in different places and doing such different things, we all share our childhoods and each of us have our memories of those times when everyone got together around the old home place. From the Norton side of the clan, we all wish you the best. Hopefully some of us can get together again soon. Thoughts and Prayers. Glenn
