“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Billy Crowe. I went through basic training in the same Platoon as Billy in 1959. I only saw him once since 1959 and that was a brief chat in Commerce on my way to N.C. for my grandson's graduation from high school in 2017. We have been friends on Facebook for several years and I considered him a Christian friend. I have missed our Facebook chats for the last several weeks and was saddened to read of his passing. RIP my friend.

“ June, I have always told you and Billy that I have always considered the two of you my bonus grandparents. It’s true. I’m so thankful for our years together and that he’s no longer in any pain and is reunited with Uncle “ Dougley “ and Hanky Poo. You, Ben and Chae are in my thoughts.

“ Dear June, I am so sorry to hear about Billy. He was such a nice man and my sincere condolences to you and the family. I treasure my memories of our years sharing a neighborhood where our boys had such wonderful childhoods. I will be thinking of you as you go through this time of heartbreaking loss.
