“ My dad is the oldest of the Beck children, which makes Bobby my uncle. There are truly no words to describe what a wonderful man he truly was! Everyone he ever met never forgot him. His smile, hilarious antics and his ability to make you smile and laugh was amazing. My family was blessed to have him as my dad’s brother, my uncle but he also dated my mom’s sister for a long period of time before meeting his second wife Wanda. As news of his passing began to spread, the outpouring of memories, love and respect for him was overwhelming. A wonderful Christian man, a man who for years was raising his daughter “Kim” and son “Ray” as a single father, a man who met his current wife Wanda and took on the responsibility of raising her two children. A man who dearly loved all the babies and children in his life. A man who brought a smile and lightheartedness to a small community. A man whose beautiful footprints will leave behind memories that will make everyone stop and smile from time to time!

We will always love you ... Shawn & Wanda Greenway, James & Jane Beck
