

Mr. Buford C. Perry

March 17, 1932 - October 3, 2022

Mr. Buford C. Perry, age 90, of Commerce passed away on Monday, October 3, 2022 at his residence. Mr. Perry was born in Commerce to the late, Raymond C. and Lottie Bell Williams Perry. Mr. Perry was a retired banker from First Commerce Bank, a member of the First Baptist Church of Commerce, a US Army veteran, and a member of the American Legion, Post 56.

Buford loved his family and friends fiercely and teased those he loved and respected. He enjoyed working in his yard, his man cave and sharing his knowledge about coins, gun restoration and collecting knives.

Mr. Perry is survived by his wife, Emily Jordan Perry of Commerce; daughter, June Albright of Lilburn; grandson, Andrew (Renee) Albright; nieces and nephews, Leslie (Tim) Garrett, Robin (Bob) Stayton, Bob (Sherri) Perry and great-nieces Ashley and Sarah and great-nephew Matt. He preceded in death by his brother Harold (Joy) Perry.

Funeral service and a celebration of life will be held Wednesday, Oct. 5th at 11 AM from the chapel of Little-Ward Funeral Home with Dr. Carlton Allen officiating with the interment following in Grey Hill Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home on Wednesday from 10-11 AM.

In lieu of flowers, the family request donations to the First Baptist Church of Commerce or the Cancer Society.

The Perry family wishes to extend heartfelt thanks to our care team, nurses and doctors from Kindred Hospice Services

Little-Ward Funeral Home, Commerce is in charge of arrangements.
