“ My future father-in-law. The sweetest, most soft spoken, and gentle man I have ever known. My only regret is that I didn't have more time with him. A musician, antique collector, and aficionado of electronics.. If you have never had the pleasure of dealing with this man, you have missed the opportunity to know what it like to deal with a salesman who was a straight shooter that would never steer you wrong. God bless this man. A true Saint in every sense of the word. God be with you Dave, for you are deserving of His divinity.

“ Dave you were the best neighbor anyone would have love to have. Steve and I will always remember you. We will miss your smiles, talks we had, and seeing you each day. RIP DEAR SWEET FRIEND. See you again one day. Delilah & Steve Garmon
