“ Spending the summers at the Loggins home was one of the most special memories I had as a kid. Don was the kindest man. I remember taking trips to the flea market. Don letting me try to drive the riding lawnmower even though I'd ran into a bush or 2. I remember many stories of Indians. He was the first person to introduce my brother to the guitar. He was the first person I called when I needed some advice on planting my garden. Don was a wonderful man and he never hesitated in the least to help me out when I got myself into some questionable predicaments. He was full of wisdom and advice that he would always deliver with such kindness and understanding. I remember him and Mary picking at one another. I use to tell him that him and Mary should have there own reality tv show. He always treated me like I was one of his. Never looking down on me for my mistakes. Always showing me love and respect. This world just lost one of the best men I have ever came across.

Mary, Dawn, Shawn, Doug and all the girls, I'm sending so much love to y'all. May y'all have comfort and strength as y'all say goodbye to the patriarch of the wonderful family.

Love y'all always,

Gail McConnell-King
