I'm going to miss my dear friend so much - her gentle spirit, the way she preferred others over herself, her willingness to go along with just about anything, her quick wit and modesty, the way she said, "I love you". I will miss traveling and seeing new sites with her, enjoying her delicious home cooking, being her partner at cards and games and our heart to heart talks. I hope the time passes quickly until I see Donna again.

When I think of Donna, I remember a true servant. She was always giving and doing for others. When her grandkids were faced with medical issues, Donna learned all she had to know about their treatment, and was faithful in carrying out their meds.

Well done thou good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your master.

Rocky

Our deepest sympathy to Rick, Jennifer and all Donna's family.
