

Dr. Albert Minish

Dr. Joseph Albert Minish, 84, went to be with the Lord on June 28, 2008 at his residence in Commerce following a brief illness. Born in Madison County on Christmas day, he was the son of the late Walter and Florence Hix Minish. Dr. Minish practiced dentistry in Commerce for 32 years and served as mayor of Commerce for over a decade. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II and in the Georgia State Senate. Following retirement from his dental practice, he established and managed Jackson County Realty for nearly 30 years. A pillar in the Commerce community, Dr. Minish was a Mason, a Shriner, and served on the Regions Bank board of directors. He was a lifetime member of Erastus Christian Church in Madison County, serving as a deacon, elder, Sunday school teacher, and board member. He received a 16 year perfect attendance pin the last Sunday he attended church. Dr. Minish is survived by his wife of 61 years, Betty Nelson Minish; three daughters and sons-in-law, Sadie and Roger Beauchamp, Elizabeth and Greg Cunningham, and Lee and Billy Myers; two grandchildren, Joel and Stacey Beauchamp; and a sister, Hazel Benton. The family will receive visitors at Little-Ward Funeral Home in Commerce from 6 – 8 pm on Saturday. The funeral service will be officiated by the Reverends Billy Glosson and Carl Beckman at Erastus Christian Church in Madison County on Sunday at 4 pm followed by interment in Grey Hill Cemetery, Commerce. In lieu of flowers, donations are requested for the Erastus Christian Church building fund, 2050 Neese-Commerce Road, Commerce, GA 30530. \r\n
