“ Eddie was the creative one in our family of 7 children. One time he took all of our troll dolls & Barbie dolls & little play horses & created a little parade with a banner & all. We were all quite little then, but Eddie was proud of his little parade.

*I am very sorry to find this obit.
Eddie with his older brother Claude were the instigators of many flag football games, wiffle ball games and adventures through the woods around the old Virginia neighborhood. When the family moved, those adventures stopped and the neighborhood became a different place. I am sorry we never had a chance to reconnect. Thank you Eddie for being one of two virtual big brothers to all of the neighborhood kids in those early years.*
