“ Eddy and I graduated from Commerce High in 1967. He was one of my best friends in school & we shared many good times together. Always admired him for not letting his disability stand in his way, although I know it was very hard on him. I understand that he suffered a lot over the past few years. No more suffering for Eddy. Rest in peace my friend. Bobby Brown

“ Eddy and I first met the summer of 1980 when I began working at Reliance Electric in Athens. He immediately took it upon himself to teach me the ways of the South. His humor and insight rivaled that of Lewis Grizzard. He made me a custom leather belt with my “Southernized” name on it: “Stan Lee”. When I informed him that I was going to buy an old pickup truck he asked me if it had a gun rack in the back window. When I replied in the affirmative, he gave me this warning: “Don’t let me catch you driving that truck with an umbrella in the gun rack.” A very special man, husband, and father. You will be missed. “Stan Lee”.
