“ Liz Kelly was my neighbor & my families friend. She was dear to us all. She will be greatly missed & she has gone home to be with her family & friends even though her family & friends will miss her so much down here. I'm glad that her, Jack her husband & my mom & Dad are all back together again singing in the Lords presents. We love you Liz & will greatly miss you but now you have your health & your memories back for eternity. Love You: Marcia Catron
