“ Please accept our sincere condolences on the parting of Emily from this earth. May God hold her in his loving arms evermore. Know that God has a plan we know nothing about. She is free now, no pain, no sorrow, pure heaven of that I'm sure. You'll meet again one day. What a joyous reunion that will be. God bless the remaining family members. Our prayers are with you! Deepest sympathy, The McAlister Family

“ Emily was such a caring, thoughtful and smart young woman. We were so grateful for the friendship she had with our daughter Brooke. Emily came to visit in February and we went to dinner and the rodeo at the Fort Worth stockyards. She had a great time and you would never know how sick she was or how bad she was feeling because she was so positive and fun. God bless her and the entire family. We are praying for all of you in this time of significant loss.
