“ When I began in the ministry many years ago, we had the privilege of serving with Don and Gayle at FBC Roanoke and later when we returned from the Mission Field, we served with them at FBC Commerce. They were mentors to us as we began our ministry and remained encouragers and prayers supporters. They were also dear friends. Our children called them "Aunt Gayle" and "Uncle Don." That is the kind of impact they had on our family. When we moved to Commerce, they graciously shared their home with us until we could get settled. In the early days of our ministry, they also shared their family with us. We loved getting to know the then teens: Chris and Michael. Gayle had such a giving spirit, welcomed all into her home and at her table, and had a contagious smile and laugh. I know they will be bright lights in Heaven and when I think of how many lives they had a positive and life-changing impact on, it staggers the mind. We are better off for their being in our lives and I could never repay what they did for us nor did they expect it. They lived to serve God and love others. We were blessed by them and by knowing them. Gayle, you will be missed by many. Thank you for blessing us.

PS

Rev. Don Paulson, we the Saeliaw's family want to express our condolences to you and your family for the loss of Ms. Gayle Paulson. Thank you for sponsoring us to this country, without you and your team, we would be here. We were blessed and had the opportunity to know you all. Thank you for blessing us and accepting us. The Saeliaw's family.

“ Dearest Gayle,
You sounded stronger and more vibrant over the phone when we spoke last week, so it was quite a shock to learn that you were gone. I will miss you. Admittedly, I was angry that you left so quickly. I truly believe that, had you gotten the attention you deserved, you would have had more time with us.
You referred to me as your soul mate which I always felt to be an odd reference. I now see that you needed a soul with whom to share your innermost thoughts; the thoughts that you reserved to protect yourself and others; those thoughts that, if expressed, may hurt feelings or wear upon a relationship. You expected a great deal from me in this arrangement and, at times, it got the better of me. You never met a stranger, were never at loss for words – although in the last few years you struggled for the breath to speak – and never gave a thought to yourself when giving to others. Gayle, you always gave more than you had! Why wouldn't you listen?
Soon I hope to revisit memories of our joyous times together and lay those aside that cast shadows. For now, I grieve and ponder: could I have done more for you; could I have given you more comfort; could I have been a better soul mate?

I love you,

Rosemary

“ I will always remember Gayle as so full of life that it bubbled over onto anyone in her path! She and Don were good friends for years beginning with connections in the Navy and the ministry. Gayle, you've been a steadfast friend and companion to Mom and Dad through thick and thin. Bon voyage. We will miss you!

“ Precious Gayle, The thought of your not being with us is just surreal! You had a heart as big as the Grand Canyon! You were love personified with a little sassy on the side! I loved you beyond words! How your Uncle Jack and Aunt Ruby dearly loved you as well. You taught me a lot, sweet lady! Wow, I am going to miss our talks! You were just so much fun to be with. We will reunite in Heaven dancing on those streets of gold. I know that you are breathin' easy now! I love you sweet one! More than you know! You will be so much missed!! You're the best!!!

We first met Gayle as customers of hers at a men's store in Commerce. She wanted us to see photos of her grandchildren. Funny thing, we already knew them. We had known their Mom all her life. We always enjoyed seeing Gayle at parties and dinners for her grandchildren. We are so sorry her family is experiencing her loss. The Rowes
