“ I loved getting to see or talk with Gloria, I have been so blessed to have served several years , With food distribution, Rain, Shine, Hot or Cold, Many tight , rushed times. But never did I ever see or hear it affect Gloria's action or voice. It was a a shere pleasure and joyful blessing to be in her presences. Gloria was one special lady. With the biggest heart of loving, and caring. Praying for each of her family. She will surely be missed by thousands. Thank You Lord, for Your Child and my friend Gloria Fay Barrett.

“Gloria was a wonderful woman filled with the Holy Spirit. She loved everyone. She had the biggest heart. We had lost touch after school, but reconnected stronger than ever. If anyone was down, rude or offensive to her, she would give them a blessing and a prayer and tell whoever was around that they were just having an off day. Her love for the Lord was strong and powerful and her love for helping others shown thru everything she did in her life. You are loved and you are missed, my friend. Prayers for her family. I pray God brings you comfort.
