“ James was such an inspiration to me in church. So often we'd say "Amen" at the same time. His love for the Lord just radiated from his countenance. His enthusiasm meant so much to all the Crooked Creekers.

Linda, please know that I am praying earnestly for you and your family. As much as your loss hurts, try to focus your heart on how greatly James is rejoicing in Jesus' Presence right this very minute! Soon we will be there with our dear Lord Jesus Christ too!

*Love you!

“ We so enjoyed having James attend Camp Shoshanah. He will forever be a part of the Camp Shoshanah family. Thank you, James for your calls to let us know that you were praying for us and camp. Your sweet spirit will be missed here on earth but our joy is knowing that you are now with your Lord and Savior.
