“ So many fond memories of Duck, Evelyn and Jeff. I would spend many weekends with the Lord family when we would come to visit my Grandpa and Granny Jackson. They lived a few hundred yards down the street. I am forever grateful for Duck and Evelyn helping my Grandparents thru the years. True loving neighbors like them dont exist anymore. Duck would take us kids to Gospel shows, dirt track races, out to eat . We played baseball in the front yard and churned ice cream under the shade tree. They took me to my first Atlanta Braves game in 1970. Im a lifelong Braves fan because of Duck and Evelyn. I pray that God comforts this wonderful family over the next few day/weeks. Andy Cannon
