“ So many memories but one stands out. We were returning from St. Simons. Jean was driving my little Mazda and the engine blew up on 16. We hitched a ride in a piggy back tractor trailer carrying mail. As we walked to the truck, Jean was saying “shot gun - shot gun. She ended up in the passenger seat and I rode on a big hump all the way to Atlanta. We were only a young 50 when this happened! My best friend for sure. I loved her then and now.
