“Wow! Where do I start? Jenni was my cousin and growing up, we spent most of our summers together. Always doing something. Riding bikes, swimming, playing basketball, riding mini bikes and doing church activities. She would spend the night with me and I with her. Oh, and we did get in trouble a few times. We had so much fun together over those years growing up. Memories that will be with me always. God Bless this family and just rejoice in the fact that we will see her again.

“ I have so many fond childhood memories with Jenni there's not enough space here for me to share. Growing up as neighbors we spent LOTS of time together. She was a true friend. One you could always call on. She Dottie & I shared lots of good times. I was so sad when I heard about her sickness. I know she is whole now, no more pain & no more suffering. I know the family will miss her tremendously but praise the Lord I know I'll see her again. I'm praying for the family.
