“ Jenny always had my back. She was there for some of my saddest moments, and there for all of my happy ones. She planned my entire wedding, and took the job of handcrafting my wedding bouquets, flower arrangements, and decorations for the party! She helped host every shower I had, and was there for me when my son was born! She was the craftiest person I knew! She's made my children several blankets, and she made my son his own growth tracker board equipped with Aerosmith lyrics! We've been to countless concerts together and spent every summer together at the beach! I'll miss everything, but what I will miss most is seeing my mom and her together! They were inseparable, like best friends should be! I know God has his reasons, but this one hits really hard. I'm sorry Jenny, but I am thankful you are in a better place, free from pain. This grief I feel now won't ever go away probably, but I know you'd want us to dance and rejoice, not be sad. I love you, Jenny.
