“ I am really just at a loss for words. I wish I would've gone to see her one more time. Last time Carol & I visited, years ago, the 3 of us enjoyed our visit. We talked of doing it again, but Ms. Tina mentioned next time maybe we could stay the night & we would all go shopping. That would've been so wonderful. 🥹 Now I will never get to. I regret that. Hug you family and friends da and see them as much as you can. I grew up in the mid 60's until 80's in our neighborhood where Ms. Tina was like a second Mom to those of us that had working parents. If we needed anything, we were welcome at the Faulkner's home. She treated all of us kids like her own. She was so sweet and super special lady! I will never forget. Prayers to the Family. I love ya'll. Barker Family, Jerilyn Barker Allen and Catherine Barker Smith
