“ Our family met 'The Tolberts' when we moved to the Atlanta area from south GA in the 60s. They and my parents became fast, and close, friends. I have great memories of them and Allan visiting on the weekend. The adults would play cards...I loved hearing them banter back and forth accusing eachother of cheating...lol. I loved hearing the laughter. When we would visit them, I recall Allan always having good games and playing records. I do remember Daddy talking about him being the perfectionist...lol. Rest easy Mr. Tolbert, and if you can play cards in heaven, I'm sure you will find some old loved ones and buddies to oblige. ❤️🙏
