“ My condolences go to the family and friends of John Whitten. The death of a loved one is a very difficult situation to deal with. We all can draw comfort from God's word in (Rev. 21: 4 )where it says " he (Jehovah) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. How encouraging it is to realize that one day in the future, we will not have to mourn over the death of a loved one anymore. Keep putting faith in our Heavenly Father and may his Spirit be with you all.

“ John was a great neighbor and will be missed a lot. I used to look forward to him walking his dogs twice a day. May those who cared for him be comforted by the Lord. My sympathy goes out to the family and friends, He will certainly be missed here on Elizabeth street. (Vickery family)

“At the end of each life is a legacy of love and memories. Hold tight to those memories.... Lean on each other for support. And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1 Peter 5:7 encourages; "Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you."
