“ Judy and I were childhood friends and inseparable for many years. These past months, while she was in this battle, we reminisced our fun times and it was a joy to hear her laugh through the pain. We spoke about her “going home to meet her maker.” She was so ready to get her new body and be clothed in righteousness from our Lord. May the Lord grant peace and comfort to her children and grandchildren in the days ahead!

“ Sorry to here this about Miss Judy she has been my neighbor for about 25 year now. She has fought a long hard battle with that old cancer. Praying for comfort for her daughter's and grand kids, and all the family during these hard times. Hold on to God's unchanging hand for peace and comfort that only he can give!
