“ I am very sorry to read of the loss of, Mrs. Smith. With his love and joys, I know he was an amazing man. I won't pretend to know what you're going through, but what has helped me deal with the loss of those I love is turning to the Scriptures, something that has been a real source of comfort. One Scripture that gives me hope is John 11:25, which says, " Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." I hope that this verse will also comfort you and, I hope you and your family can get through this difficult time. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your beloved mother, grandma and friend. Sincerely, Meryl

“ As the days and weeks pass, and you return to life's routine, may you seek comfort from God's Word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

“ We met June through our family ties with Janice and Tommy Marable. From that first introduction, we knew we had a friend that shared our deep love for the Georgia Bulldogs. Our hearts are heavy with grief as we think about saying good-bye. But we know she is not really gone. She lives on in our fond memories of her and we rejoice in the knowledge that we had the honor of knowing June Marable Smith. Our heartfelt condolences go to all her family members. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you all, now and in the days ahead. James and Gretchen Logan

“ We are so sad to learn of your passing. No more pain or worries our friend. Not sure how we will survive football seasons without you beside us to cheer on the Dawgs. We have had so many fun times over the years in our tailgating at the games. Our prayers are with your family today and in the future. June, I will miss our telephone conversations & I know there is no greater Dawg fan than you. Know you will be looking down from heaven at every game & play & giving your opinion & hollering GO DAWGS!!. {I loved you my friend. (Pat) }
