

Kenneth Wayne Powell

Mr. Kenneth Wayne Powell, 58, went to be with Jesus on Saturday December 4, 2010 after an extended illness. Born in Jackson County to the late, Bill Powell and Dorothy Blalock Watson. He was the grandson of the late, Hoke and Edna Merle Blalock and the nephew of the late, George Thomas Blalock. Wayne was a Commerce High School student and a graduate of Athens Tech in which he received a certificate of completion as an auto body technician. He was a body repair man Monday thru Friday and a skilled fisherman, Georgia Bulldog Fan, and a dedicated auto racing fan, in which he had made lots of friends throughout his lifetime. He enjoyed spending time with them and making good memories. Although gone, but not forgotten Wayne left behind his family including his brother, Tommy Watson, sister-in-law, Janet Watson, nephew, Joshua Watson, and niece, Samantha Watson, aunt, Glinda Blalock, two special cousins, which were like sisters to him, Beverly Blalock and Cindy Stancil. Other family members included are Holly Gaddis, Johnny Stancil, Jonathon, Jennifer, Chance, and Kyler Stancil. A memorial service will be held Thursday December 9, 2010 at the Baptist Tabernacle Church with the Rev. Tommy Watson officiating. Visitation will be held from 2-4 PM and the memorial service will be at 4 PM. The church is located on 441 South of Commerce with the green cross that says Jesus Saves. \r\n
