“ Larry was one of the kindest, most humble men I've ever known. He worked hard at everything he tried and did it with no expectation of recognition. He was a great servant for the Lord and His church. Great men of such caliber are rare and he will be missed. He and Hilda made a great team and we love them both dearly. -- Steve & Sherri Barber

We didn't know Larry well, but always found him to be a sweet, delightful person to be around. Whenever we are in the area visiting our daughter we look forward to worshiping with the Franklin County Church of Christ. We were always greeted by Larry and he was able to make you feel so welcome. We will miss him for sure when we visit, but we look forward to that great reunion of the redeemed with our Lord in the future. Gary and Vicki Woodham
