

Louise Kranzberg

Louise Lester (Clark) Kranzberg, age 81 of Atlanta, Georgia died Wednesday June 23, 2010 at Northeast Georgia Medical Center. Born in Sanford, Florida on February 11, 1929 to Lillian and John Clark; Louise graduated from the Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville where, upon arrival, her friends first began to call her 'Les.' She earned both a master's and a specialist's degree in education from the University of Georgia. Les was then honored by a scholarship from the Rotary Club of Cobb County to study at the University of Freiberg in Germany. Les had a life-long passion for helping others. She worked as an educator specializing in teaching reading to students from around the world, both young and adult. While serving as principal of Belmont Hills Elementary School, she met and married Dr. Melvin Kranzberg. Louise Kranzberg served as a member of the Board of Trustees at her alma mater, now named Georgia College & State University, and was honored by the establishment of the Kranzberg Phoenix Scholarship. Along with Mel's colleagues and generous supporters, Les was involved in establishing the permanent Kranzberg Professorship in the History of Technology at Georgia Tech. Louise is survived by her children, Reed Catlett, Raymond Catlett, David Catlett, and her granddaughter Christina. A graveside service will be held at 10:00 on June 26, 2010 at Arlington Memorial Park in Atlanta, Georgia.

Tribute Wall

“ Louise Kranzberg

October 09, 2023 at 05:17 AM