

Mrs. Louise Crumley Seymour

June 26, 1923 - October 2, 2020

Mrs. Artie Louise Crumley Seymour, age 97, a native of Commerce, Georgia passed away after a long, blessed life on Friday, October 2, 2020 at Piedmont Athens Regional Medical Center. She was surrounded by family and anticipated heaven with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was born to the late Daniel Hershel (D.H) and Ada Black Crumley.

Mrs. Seymour loved well and was well loved by many. She treasured time with cherished family and friends and was resourceful, hardworking, determined, and full of joy and laughter. She was a member of Madison Street Baptist Church and was retired from Harmony Grove Mills.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Seymour was preceded in death by her husband Malcom (Mac) Seymour; grandson Clay Seymour; sisters, Ellis Moore and Cleo Crocker; and brothers Walker Crumley, Garland Crumley, R.D. Crumley, James Crumley, Clint Crumley, and General Crumley.

Mrs. Seymour is greatly missed and is survived by her son Ronnie Seymour and daughter-in-law Phyllis Seymour of Commerce; granddaughter, Dayna Seymour Williams and husband Tim Williams; and great grandchildren, Caroline, Harrison, Benjamin, Anne, and Jackson Williams, all of Sharpsburg, Georgia, along with a number of dearly loved nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be held at 3 PM, Sunday, October 4 at Grey Hill Cemetery, Commerce with Reverend Matt McKinney officiating. The family will receive friends at the cemetery from 2 PM to 3 PM on Sunday.

Little-Ward Funeral Home, Commerce is in charge of arrangements.

“ I know I not only speak for myself but also for Sara Stringer Nelms and Dean Stringer when I say how blessed we were to have such a wonderful great aunt. She was a strong Christian woman who is rejoicing in Heaven now. She had a really good sense of humor and loved to laugh. She will be missed. We love y'all so very much.
