“ 30 years ago tomorrow on June 30, 1989 my husband and I eloped to the Hall County Courthouse in Gainesville, GA. We were kindly greeted by Lula Belle Morris who proceeded to instruct us as to how the proceedings would occur. As we watched the very young couple getting married before us she asked us to show her our right hands. She said that it drove Judge Hulseley crazy when brides and grooms didn't know their right hands from their left and she wanted to make sure that we did so as to not upset the judge. She was kind but firm. She witnessed our marriage and signed our marriage certificate along with Polly Henderson and a very young man by the name of Wayne Jennings who we were told was a nephew of the judge (?). We are saddened by her passing but so thankful she was present with us at the beginning of what has been a long and very happy marriage.
