“ My bestie growing up. I am hearbroken, but know she is in a better place. She and I were more like sisters...I was either at her house or her mine. What great times we all had. Rest easy. I know you are rejoicing being with your special parents.

“ Lynn and I were life-long friends she lived near me in our earlier years and I would ride my bike to her house in the summer. Our connection goes back to our parents her dad and mine were good friends in school. She and I loved it when the Braves came to Atlanta. We would listened to games together on the radio. Such a great friend and a sweet, sweet person. 🥺🤗

“ Lynn was a great friend. She loved the Lord and was such an inspiration to me, Tim, Doug, and Zach. I always told her my Christmas wasn't complete until she read The Best Thing About Christmas. Now she can read it to all the children in Heaven. RIP. Until we meet again.

“ Lynn was a childhood friend. We had so much fun playing and spending time together. Lynn had a quiet gentle spirit. She had a beautiful mannerism about her and was a friend to everyone. She was blessed to have a wonderful family and a loving husband who took such good care of her as she battled illness. Rest in Peace at the feet of Jesus dear Lynn.
