

Mary Meriwether

Mrs. Mary Annelle Landrum Meriwether, age 94, of Commerce, GA died June 9, 2010 at her residence. Mrs. Meriwether was born in Floyd County to the late, Herbert Otto and Willie Clyde French Landrum. Mrs. Meriwether was a homemaker. Mrs. Meriwether was a talented seamstress who enjoyed making "Barbee doll" creations for her granddaughters. Her love of history and pride in her family name, Landrum lead her into the field of genealogy. Without the assistance of a computer, she cataloged each relative using the Georgia Archives, and libraries across northern Georgia. Before her illness she was an active member of the Columbia Drive Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia. Mrs. Meriwether was preceded in death by her husband, Woody Meriwether. Mrs. Meriwether is survived by her son and daughter-in-law; James and Kay Mitchell of Commerce, GA, Grandchildren; Kathy and Mark Shirley, Wendy and Bruce Miller, and Bobby and Michelle Mitchell, Great Grandchildren; Andy, Ben, and Becky Shirley, Aaron Veal, Lydia Anne and Emmie Mitchell, sister; Matelyn Heyward of Alpharetta, GA. A memorial service for Mrs. Meriwether and Mr. Meriwether, who passed away on April 15, 2010, will be Sunday at 2:00 PM from the chapel of Little-Ward Funeral Home with the Rev. Cecil D. Gibby officiating with the interment at Rest Haven Cemetery in Decatur, GA.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Meriwether

October 09, 2023 at 05:17 AM