

Mrs. Mary Jane Williamson

April 30, 1933 - March 28, 2020

Mrs. Mary Jane Strickland Williamson, age 86, of Commerce passed away Saturday, March 28, 2020 at Northeast Georgia Medical Center. Mrs. Williamson was born on April 30, 1933 in Danielsville to the late, Clemon and Texie Mae Hill Strickland. Mrs. Williamson was retired from Reliance and was of the Baptist faith. In addition to her parents, Mrs. Williamson was also preceded in death by her first husband, Lawrence Kitchens, second husband, Kenneth Williamson, brothers, J.B, Paul, Coyle, Marvin, Frank, Jim, Bob, and L.T., and sister, Ida Mae Ramsey.

She is survived by her daughters, Barbara Thompson (Nelson) of Commerce and Peggy Lewis (Wayne) of Athens; step-daughter, Nancy Drye (Jim) of Phoenix, AZ; sister, Anne Jackson of Danielsville; four grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and one great great granddaughter; she was loved by many nieces and nephews.

Due to the recommendation of the CDC, and the executive order issued by Governor Brian Kemp banning all gatherings of 10 or more people, services for Mrs. Williamson are being planned accordingly to comply with this order.

Graveside service will be held Monday, March 30th at 2:00 PM from the graveside at Jackson Memorial Gardens with Rev. James Dumas officiating.

Little-Ward Funeral Home, Commerce is in charge of arrangements.

“ *My heart will never forget You Aunt Mary!
Barbara and Peggy*

I am so sorry for your loss, may all the beautiful memories of a wonderful mother comfort you day in and day out during the days to come. I know you must feel as if she took a part of you with her, but knowing Aunt Mary (and that's what I've called her for 12 yrs because of Tim) knowing her, I know she left the best part of her in both of you. May God Bless and Comfort all of you today and forever.
