“ I have so many memories of my Aunt Maurita - my father's sister. Her son Neal and I were very close - like brothers - and we both were very mischievous. I was a pastor's son and Neal was a missionary son (to France) so you know that could be a very misbehaving mixture. One time we were caught doing something not quite appropriate and when we both walked in the door of their home, my Aunt Maurita had a very energetic conversation with my cousin, which lasted for quite a long time. I never was sure what was said as it was all in French, but I knew we were in trouble. Even though we tried her patience over and over again, I always felt love from her as if I was her own son. I love you Aunt Maurita and will be so glad to see you again.
