“ *Karol and DeLisa,
I am saddened to learn of your loss. Merlene was truly an angel here on earth. My heart is full of joy that I know she is in Heaven with your sweet dad.*

Your parents were like grandparents to my oldest daughter, Dr. Christy Epps (who is now principal of Madison County High School). On several occasions Christy didn't want to come home after spending the day with Merlene. And to think about all of the wonderful cakes she made in her kitchen. She was just a very precious soul.

Please know you and your entire family are in my prayers.

“ It’s been a blessing knowing Mrs. Sims, such a kind gentle lady. I remember when I would see them in their swing, I would go over have a seat on the step and talk. I had to make a few special trips to tell Mrs. Sims “Thank you” she put the “H” in Homemade with her apple pies that Mr. Sims would bring over, such a special treat. My thoughts and prayers are with the families.
