“ *Building forts in the woods, playing on the clay hill, bailing hay and working in the chicken house, swimming in the pond and walking on the foot log, weekends together laughing and giggling when we were supposed to be sleeping. Playing football, Red Rover, and Crack the Whip on Sunday afternoon. Walking on the iced over pond... it's a wonder one of us didn't fall through the ice. Swimming in that same pond and wondering why the bottom was so squishy. Uncle James taking us to the Commerce pool on summer Sunday afternoon. Great memories of cousins having fun in the south. We will miss Myra, but her legacy lives on in her family. Love and hugs to you all, Terrie 💕

I remember the day Myra and Pat got married and came back to Mama Jones' home to tell the news. They were so young and in love. Both hard working parents, they raised four wonderful children who had two of the most wonderful role models to follow as they grew and became adults. Myra was a kind hearted person who would give you the shirt off her back if you needed it. She invested in the lives of others and lived life to the full. Well done my good and faithful servant of the Lord.
