“ Patricia was my all time favorite Screven High School Pirate cheerleader. I first heard the Beatles on her record player. But above all, she was a very tolerant and mature teenage camper while surrounded by those of us who were younger and less domesticated. Those are treasured memories.

“ We have shared ‘GRANDmotherhood’ for over 27 years. We met when our kids were young teens. We have laughed, cried, eeeewd and ahhhhhd annd fussed over the three GRANDS we share. Tricia is so missed. But what she missed most in this world for almost a year and a half is... Amory. Now she is with him again. My prayers to her boys and GRANDS who have been by her bedside for days. 💔🙏
