

Polly Sue Whitmire

Polly Sue Whitmire of Commerce, GA went to a better place on Saturday April 5, 2008. she fought a courageous battle after being diagnosed with Pulmonary Hypertension three years ago. Polly was born December 3, 1946 in Brevard, NC and is preceded in death by her father, W.T. Whitmire, her mother, Edna Poole Whitmire, and her brother, Jerry T. Whitmire. She is survived by her children, Justin R. Gillespie and Dr. Treena Gillespie, daughter-in-law, Angie, granddaughter, Heather, and her sister, Jane Zumstein. Polly graduated from Brevard High School. She graduated from Blue Ridge Technical College as an LPN, from Dekalb College with an AS degree in Nursing, and from the University of North Carolina, Asheville with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Literature. She worked as an RN at Athens Regional Medical Center. Polly moved to Commerce, GA in 1995. She had a focused interest in alternative healing methods and developed a great friendship with healers and other alternative thinkers in Athens, GA. Polly was a member of Unity Church, Athens. She dedicated herself to helping others physically, emotionally and spiritually. Polly loved nature and cared for animals, especially her many pets. Polly was an inspiration to all whose lives she touched. She and her wonderful laughter will truly be missed. Little-Ward Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Her family and friends honored her life with a celebration Sunday, April 6, 2008. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Commerce Public Library Building Fund (P.O. Box 348, Commerce, GA 30529).

Tribute Wall

“ Polly Sue Whitmire

October 09, 2023 at 05:17 AM