“ I have often thought of Robert and Betty over these past years, remembering the many, many acts of kindness and graciousness that they and their family showed to me so many times for so long. It is a great sadness to me that I am now discovering Robert's passing. Robert was great fun to be around and as a sincere man of faith he was as solid as they come. If you needed a friend, Robert was always there for you, as he and Betty certainly were for me. I am sorry that you are no longer with us, Robert, and it was my great fortune in this life to have known you and to have spent time with you. Thank you. Rest in peace "Deke", forever. - John Scott
