RIP MR. Roger, thru his music on the piano he touched many lives. There were a lot of great times at the Jefferson Holiness Church, we lived on mahaffey street close the church and I heard Mr. Roger tear that piano up at times. GOD BLESS HIM AND HIS FAMILY.

Roger Moore was a wonderful Christian, man and the beloved piano player at Jefferson C.H. church. I remember seeing him play the piano from the choir and during specials...Roger smiled all the time. He was the personification of a Godly man, and he was a great example to the church as well as the community. I can just see him and daddy meeting as old friends in Heaven, singing and playing for Jesus in that Heavenly Choir, while Rev. Dennis Kesler joins in singing and praising God with them forever. RIP, Roger. We'll see you again one sweet day in Heaven when we are all reunited up there! Laura, Emory, and Johnny...you can rest assured that your parents are reunited in Glory for eternity, praising the Lord! May God bless your entire family through this difficult time of grieving.
