“ I only met Mr. Hanley a couple of times, enjoyed at Thanksgiving meal with him one year. However, his daughter is married to my cousin and she is such a delightful, fun young woman and full of love for others. We are grateful for her to be in our family. So, I know he was a also a kind, caring man. Love to Becky and family and prayers for peace and comfort.

“ My deepest sympathy to all the family members for their tragic loss. Mr. Ron was a kind abs always upbeat/happy any time I ran into him. The last time I saw him was last Spring in Walmart. He was buying flowers to set out. We spoke briefly. He was always so personable. E will be missed by many.
