“ He was my first best friend growing up he was 15 years older than me. I remember when he got back from his service in the Army we did a lot of things together fishing and hunting he was so much like my granddaddy. Uncle Ronnie was just a good man. I remember him taking me over to Charlie Smiths Nicholson Cafe and shooting pool with him and watching him shoot pool with others. He was fun to be around and so unselfish. He did not have a mean bone in his body. I will miss him so much but i know he is in Heaven with Granddaddy and Grandma and my mom and his brother my Uncle Ed along with so many others. R.I.P my sweet Uncle and long time buddy.
