“ Alex, you and Ryan made Buck and I feel so welcome when we first bought our camper in Hartwell. That night playing cards was so fun!!! Becoming a customer was a huge help when we needed to extend our stay. I'll remember our last conversation as we spoke about forgiveness and how we seek God in those moments of struggle. I pray the Peace of Jesus as you take this journey. He will light your path sweetheart. Buck and I carry you and the boys as we pray for you all. Much love. The Scuffhams

“ I am truly sorry and shocked to hear about your death Ryan. You are the love of my daughter 's life and the sunshine in the eyes of my grandsons. I pray you are at peace in our Heavenly Father's Home.

A Psalm of David:

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures;

He leads me beside quiet waters.

He restores my soul;

He guides me in the paths of righteousness for the sake of His name.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

“ My heart is broken beyond words. Ryan, you are my son, my pride, and one of the greatest joys of my life. I am so incredibly proud of the man you became a loving husband, a devoted father, and a hard working provider who built a life for his family through strength, determination, and love.

To Alex, Mason, and Jaxson: please know that you are not alone. I will always be here for you, no matter what you need, for as long as I live. Ryan loved you with his whole heart, and that love lives on through you.

The pain of losing you is something I will carry forever, but so will the memories, the laughter, and the bond we shared. I love you, son, always and forever. Rest easy you will never be forgotten.
