“ We were blessed to know Ryan all his life. We always enjoyed talking to him about so many things: his family, his family history, his animals, his church, his work, growing watermelons(which he did very well). We never knew him to be unkind to anyone. The big million dollar smile. He left an imprint on all our lives that will live on. We want to remember him for how much he loved, for how much of himself he gave and for how kind he always was. He will be dearly missed.

“ I will miss the office visits talking about his love for Jimmy Carter, his hatred for vegetables, and witnessing the unwavering dedication and care for the members of our community. Rest In Peace buddy.
