“ *To Dot and family,
Has been such a long time since we all have seen each other. In the last years of remembrance the ones I do remember most is Sanford and Dot.
Sanford and my brother Jack ate together at the Jefferson Waffle House on most Sunday afternoons [torn down now] and Jack told me how Sanford talked about family and old friends. We had heard from some of the Waffle House waitresses that Sanford had taken ill around the time Jacks' sickness worsened. Sanford and Jack have a better body and place now, being with the LORD. They also have one more thing in common - they both died on January 8th. We lost Jack to leukemia a year ago.
Sending the best to you all from an old Maysville friend.
Love thru Christ,

“ At the end of each life is a legacy of love and memories. Hold tight to those memories.... Lean on each other for support. And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. 1 Peter 5:7 encourages; "Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you."
