“ Mrs. Klugh was the most favorite substitute teacher ever! Her "smiley faces" were iconic!!! Always a pleasant woman of God!

She will be missed here on Earth - but Heaven gained a wonderful angel.

Please know that we are praying for her family.

“ Klugh family: Gram had knee surgery today and will not be able to attend any personal tribute to Miss Shirley Klugh. BUT he insisted that I take a card and honor that woman. He wanted me to leave early and go to the visitation. The place was PACKED. All I could do was wiggle my way through and find Starla. She hugged my neck and told me she would be sure to give Bud and Ned the card and tell them we love them. This tragedy will merge itself into sweet memories. Love this family. Warmly, Gram and Carol Hodgkins.

“ Mrs. Shirley was a very sweet person. I would hang out with Johnny Lee at her house and she was the type of person who would treat you like family. I am very sorry for the loss of the Klugh family.

“ Dear Klugh family,

*Shirley had such a postive influence on the youth of Hartwell First United Methodist Church while your family lived in Hartwell. She shaped so many of our lives. We will always remember her with so much and love and respect. Thinking of all of you.
