“ I've only just learned, a year later, of Ted's death. He, Darrel and I rode the same school bus years ago. I ride by his house, and Darrel's frequently on my way to Commerce. And, have thought about stopping to reintroduce myself. I grew up in the old house where Ted built his new one and have very fond memories of the area. I am very sorry to hear of your loss.

“ Always just TED. If he had anything to say to me then he would, if not then we sat under that big tree and said nothing. I was usually with my husband, KEITH, Ted was his best friend in the world and they always had something to say -- good, bad, ugly, mean, just picking at each other. They were always there for each other to the very end.
Ted was very loved from our house & will be truly truly missed by both of us.
